Re: United States v. Burt Kozloff
07 Cr. 573 (CLB)

Dear Judge Brieant:

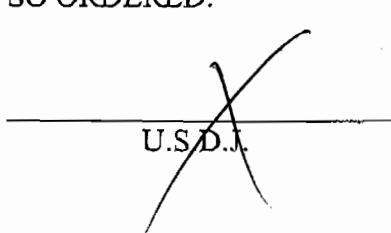

I am the attorney for Burt Kozloff, the defendant in the above-referenced case. Mr. Kozloff is currently scheduled to be sentenced on January 9, 2008 at 9:00 a.m. With the Government's consent, I respectfully request that Mr. Kozloff's sentencing be adjourned for an additional three months, to April 2008.

Pursuant to a plea agreement with the Government, on June 26, 2007, Mr. Kozloff pleaded guilty to a one-count information charging him with tax evasion. In the plea agreement, Mr. Kozloff agreed to file initial or amended returns for the years 1997 through 2004 and to use his best efforts to pay the taxes and applicable penalties that he owes to the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") prior to the date of his sentencing. This requested adjournment of his sentencing will provide additional and necessary time for Mr. Kozloff to abide by this commitment to pay the taxes and penalties that he owes to the IRS. He is in the process of borrowing money from his family in order to satisfy the foregoing financial obligations. For this reason, I respectfully request that Mr. Kozloff's sentencing be adjourned to April 2008. Thank you.

Respectfully,

Richard E. Signorelli
